

GOVERNOR TYLER
MAYBE OUT TO-DAYNames of Successful Law Students.
Live Capitol
Notes.

Governor Tyler was able to be up in his room yesterday, but was not well enough to come to his office. He will probably be at the Capitol to-day.

The Cincinnati Post has wired Governor Tyler, asking if he will allow Jeffries and Kluhn to fight a limited number of rounds in this State should they be given the privilege in the State of Ohio.

The Governor replied emphatically "no." He says he will not allow any thing so brutal to take place, so far as he is concerned, while he is Governor of Virginia.

The Board of Public Works, which was scheduled to meet yesterday to consider the case of the supervisors of Fluvanna county, vs. the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, will not meet until to-day at 11 o'clock, on account of the inability of Judge D. H. Leake, of counsel for the company, to be here yesterday.

State Senator John L. Jeffries, of Culpeper, Colonel Joseph Patton, of Appomattox and Hon. A. S. Phibbs, of Charlottesville, were called at the library yesterday.

Captain R. S. Parks, of Page, was at the Auditor's office.

Judge S. Houston Letcher, of Lexington; Hon. R. W. Wynn, of Danville; and ex-Senator Eugene Withers, of Danville, were in attendance upon the session of the Supreme Court.

Judge John G. Dew and Adjutant-General Nalle spent Sunday at their respective homes, and are expected to return to their duties to-day.

The following were the successful applicants for license to practice law who appeared before the Supreme Court: J. Leslie Morris, Bedford City, Va.; George Burnley Soudair, Charlottesville, Va.; Augustus T. Stroud, Norfolk, Va.; Sigmund M. B. and, Norfolk, Va.; H. M. C. Sherritt, Port Norfolk, Va.; E. H. Delamater, Jr., Lewiston, Va.; Hugh Glen Morrison, Gate City, Va.; Charles T. Worham, Hanover, Va.; James O. C. Teller, Richmond, Va.; H. C. Deshaield, Richmond, Va.; and William Thack Shannhouse, Norfolk, Va.

There were thirty applicants, and only the above eleven were successful.

Following were the proceedings in the Court of Appeals yesterday:

Baer vs. Ingram et al., argued by Benjamin Haden and John T. Delaney for appellants, and R. L. Park for appellee, and submitted.

The next cases to be called are the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Insurance Association vs. Taylor; the Fidelity Loan and Trust Company vs. John Engleby-Nos. II and II on the petitioned order.

The Department of Public Instruction was notified yesterday of the election of Dr. George W. Russell, as physics in the German Chemistry and physics in the Roanoke high school.

Dr. Russell is a native of Arcadia, is a B. A. of the Randolph-Macon College, and took post graduate courses at the University of Virginia and the Johns Hopkins University of Baltimore. During the illness of the late Prof. Bagland, Dr. Russell was acting professor of chemistry in the Randolph-Macon College, and is regarded as one of the rising young educators of the State.

The election is a source of gratification to the department and indicates that the Roanoke schools are after the best talent to be obtained.

GREAT WORK.

Hundreds of People Watch the Construction Force on Free Bridge.

Work on the Free Bridge is progressing rapidly. The bridge was closed to traffic from 12 o'clock Saturday night to 6 o'clock Sunday morning, and during that time the portion of the bridge immediately under the point at which the C. and O. viaduct is to cross was taken away and the new one put in its place.

When the bridge was opened Sunday the west side was found to have been completed and the street-truck was ready for use. At present just one track is used from the Richmond entrance to a point about half way across. Workmen are now engaged in putting the east side of the bridge in order so that the street-truck on that side of the bridge may be used as quickly as possible.

All day Sunday crowds of people went to the scene to look at the workmen do so much of the bridge.

Nearly 500 men are at work on the bridge and within ten days it is probable the bridge will be in a finished state.

Capt. Daughtry, Elected to Succeed Major Cutchins.

Captain William L. Daughtry, Jr., was elected major of the Blues' Battalion at noon yesterday, to succeed Major Sol. Cutchins, resigned.

The meeting for the election was held in the Blues' Armory, at Ninth and Cary Streets, with the following officers present:

Captain Cheatwood, Lieutenants Spencer and Hazen, and Captain Daughtry. Lieutenant Wilson, of Company A, was absent.

S. cures all diseases of a blood-poison origin, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Herpes and similar troubles, and is an infallible cure and the only antidote for that most horrible disease, Contagious Blood Poison.

A record of nearly fifty years of successful cures is a record to be proud of. S. S. S. is more popular today than ever. It numbers its friends by the thousands. Our medical correspondence is larger than ever in the history of the medicine. Many write to thank us for the great good S. S. S. has done them, while others are seeking advice about their cases. All letters receive prompt and careful attention. Our physicians have made a life-long study of Blood and Skin Diseases, and better understand such cases than the ordinary practitioner who makes a specialty of no one disease.

We are doing great good to suffering humanity through our consulting department, and invite you to write us if you have any blood or skin trouble. We make no charge whatever for this service.

Motherhood

How shall a mother who is weak and sick with some female trouble bear healthy children? How anxious women ought to be to give their children the blessing of a good constitution! Many women long for a child to bless their home, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs, they are barren.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the parts, curing all displacements and inflammation.

Actual sterility in women is very rare. If any woman thinks she is sterile, let her write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., whose advice is given free to all expectant or would-be mothers.

Mrs. A. D. Jarret, Belmont, Ohio, writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I must write and tell you what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was asking your medicine. I was unable to carry babe to maturity, having lost two—one at six months and one at seven. The doctor said next time I would die, but thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I did not die, but am the proud mother of a six months old girl baby. She weighs nineteen pounds and has never seen a sick day in her life. She is the delight of our home."

Mrs. Whitney's Gratitude.

From the time I was sixteen years old till I was twenty-three I was troubled with weakness of the kidneys and terrible pains when my monthly periods came on. I was asking your medicine. I was unable to carry babe to maturity, having lost two—one at six months and one at seven. The doctor said next time I would die, but thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I did not die, but am the proud mother of a six months old girl baby. She weighs nineteen pounds and has never seen a sick day in her life. She is the delight of our home."

MRS. L. WHITNEY'S BABY

absent, being out of town. Major Daughtry's election was unanimous, as for some time he had been ranking captain in the battalion.

Major Daughtry is a native Virginian, being born in Suffolk. He is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, being a member of the class of '94. After leaving the institution he came to Richmond, and upon the organization of Company B, in 1894, enlisted as a private, as which he served three years, his first promotion being to sergeant at the beginning of the Spanish War. Within three months he held, by rapid promotions, the offices of second and first lieutenant. As First Lieutenant he went with the company to war, serving in this office until the resignation of Captain George B. Pogram, who he succeeded as captain of Company B. Upon the return of the company and its reorganization of the State service, he was elected captain.

Major Daughtry is secretary of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia.

Company B will meet at the Armory Wednesday night to elect a second lieutenant, to succeed the late Lieutenant Wm. S. Jones, and also a captain to succeed Major Daughtry.

It is probable Lieutenant Spencer will be elected captain.

The commissioners appointed to inspect Brook Turnpike reported favorably of its condition.

The case of William and Margaret Page, charged with the murder of Mary Bell, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the illness of the defendant.

Squire Lonnie presided over affairs in the White Chamber yesterday. He had a large docket before him, which he disposed of with becoming dignity.

Joe Edwards, a small colored boy, started to take some milk out of the bucket in the table, when Mattie Lacy objected. Mattie wanted some milk, too, said Joe, and dare wasn't much milk in the pith-bucket, and I wanted it. When I stopped down and den rize up, she struck me wild and boom, and cut me between the fingers.

"Dare was a hole out of my hand," said Mattie, "and when she wanted to take it all and I let her, she tempted me to draw a pocket-knife, and he hit me wild and boom; and when I seen him lookin' for a knife I cut him in self-defense." John Venable (colored) was fined $10 for kicking and slapping Irving Howell. "He hit me wild and I shot him."

"I don't hit him," said little Irving. Cornelius Robinson (colored) got on a little jag and saw a dance going on. The door was open, and he thought by that that he could go in and in he went. Somebody got after him with a red-hot poker, and he started a row, and Officer Gorman arrested him. It cost Cornelius $5.

William Burch, a respectable-looking white man, was charged with disturbing the peace by using unprintable words. He was fined $5, which just went to show that a man can't make faces at a policeman.

William Green and George (colored) were charged with the use of the turnpike and the railroad, were charged by Richard Carter, one of their companions, with holding him up and taking his things away from him. Carter told some people about it, and they chased the two men a long time. They were finally corralled under the dock and were given six months.

A meeting of the General Committee, which is charged with the duty of seeing before the people of Virginia the condition of the penitentiary with a view to influence the coming Legislature to take some action in the matter, was held yesterday afternoon. The subject was fully and earnestly discussed by Col. Marston, Mr. Arthur B. Clarke, Mr. Robert Lancaster, Jr., Mr. John B. Minor, Dr. Charles V. Carrington, Colonel John Murphy, Mr. Henry Hatcher and others. A paper setting forth the two conditions which exist at the penitentiary and a petition to the Legislature were adopted, and a sub-committee, with Mr. Robert Lancaster, Jr., as chairman, was appointed to send these papers out through the State.

TRIED THREE TIMES

To Fit Coffee to a Sensitive Body.

There are great numbers of highly organized people upon whom coffee acts as a clearly defined poison. In some extreme cases the poisonous effects will show in from three to five minutes, in other cases a long time is required, and in some cases the body can stand the effects for years, but the effects are very sure, and many times result in a fixed condition of organic disease that is difficult or impossible to be rid of.

The funeral of the late Evan Sheed was largely attended Sunday afternoon. The services were held at Pine-Street church at 4:30 o'clock and hundreds of admirers and friends of the deceased were unable to get into the church.

A large number of Committees were present, and the committees from the Clay Ward Active and other bodies were also there. The interment was made in Hollywood.

The Central Committee of the A. P. V. S. will meet to-day at 12 M. at the Virginia Historical Society for important business.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs of the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling bad, you had better make a mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail, Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

was re-elected president, E. B. Addison, vice-president, and J. W. Sinton, cashier.

FEWER DRUNKS.

The Police Court Showed Which Way the Wind Blows.

There were fewer drunks in the Police Court yesterday than for any Monday for some time. The cause was attributed to the effect the Sunday Observance League had upon the bar-keepers, most of whom kept closed doors.

The doors were closed to all except the "elect" there is little doubt, but some of the bars had the capers on duty and a side door, and those who are accustomed to get their drinks on Sunday had little trouble getting them last Sunday.

RANKS THIRD.

Standing of Virginia in the Number of Post-Officers.

It will probably be news to most people that Virginia ranks third in the number of post-officers. Pennsylvania leads with 6,336; New York comes second, with 5,255; Virginia, 3,775; Ohio, 3,494.

These figures are taken from the last report of the Post-Office Department. Virginia congressmen have evidently succeeded well in securing new post-offices for their constituents.

The small post-offices in the State make their remittances to the Richmond office. Postmaster Knight has signed for 2,320 such remittances since the 1st of last July. These remittances show a healthy and healthy increase in the business done.

BOARD MEETS TO-NIGHT.

President Turpin to Name Charter Changes Committee.

President Turpin will at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen to-night announce the names of the two members of that body on the Committee on charter changes. He said yesterday he had not decided as to whom he would appoint.

President Ebel, of the Common Council, was at this place of business, but it was learned that he has not selected the three members of the body over which he presides to serve on the committee.

It is understood that Messrs. Turpin and Ebel may confer, with a view to trying to reach an agreement, which will result in five wards being represented on the committee.

Mr. Turpin's Views.

Mr. Wm. M. Turpin, president of the Board of Aldermen, said yesterday: "I am opposed to any amendment to the city charter increasing the limit of bonded indebtedness."

"The limit is now 18 per cent. of the assessed value of real estate in the city. There is no good reason why the limit should be raised. We can get along all right under the present arrangement. Of course, there may come great disasters, such as that which Galveston experienced recently, and then the city may have to adopt heroic measures to meet the demands of its citizens. Just now, however, I am fully convinced that there is no occasion for raising the bond limit."

An Offer Submitted.

The proposition of the Virginia Electrical Railway and Development Company to furnish the necessary power to the Richmond and Petersburg Electrical Railway Company for the running of the cars of the latter company between the city and Petersburg was submitted yesterday. It will be some days before the latter company will decide whether to accept this offer or to build a power-house of its own.

Mr. Brantigan Here.

Mr. Julius Brantigan, the railway postal clerk who was arrested in Norfolk on the charge of robbing the mails, has been released from custody on bail and has returned to Richmond.

It is generally believed that he will, through his counsel, seek to have the case removed to Richmond for trial.

Petition Filed.

Mr. John E. Thomas, a railway official, filed a petition in bankruptcy through his counsel, Mr. George J. Hooper. His liabilities exceed his assets, it is claimed.

Judge Waddell heard argument in Chambers as certain claims in bankruptcy matters.

Dam Gave Away.

The big dam used in the river to increase the force of water in the canal at the Virginia Electrical Construction Works gave way on Saturday and did some damage to the work going on. Until the break is repaired, a number of men will be idle. The repairs will be made at once.

Small Arrests.

John Ford (colored) is under arrest at the Second Station, for having a lamp in his possession and for carrying a single.

W. L. Gregory was arrested on a peace warrant yesterday afternoon, sworn to by Edgar Possig.

Arm Amputated.

Jacob Ray, a colored man, had his hand badly cut with a saw while at work on Church Hill Avenue about 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He was carried to the City Hospital by Dr. Fisher, and it was found necessary to amputate his arm, which was done by Drs. Trevilian and Fisher.

Verdict For Fifty Dollars.

In the Law and Equity Court the case of C. B. Wood vs. the American National Bank for $100, on the ground that his credit was damaged because of the refusal of the bank to cash a check when he had sufficient funds to his credit, was on trial yesterday. The result was a verdict of $50 for the plaintiff.

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST A NEGRO

Shot and Arrested for Attempting to Assault a White Lady.

Joseph White, an unprepossessing negro, is in jail to await the action of the grand jury on the charge against him of attempting to assault a white lady on First Street, near Broad, about 7 o'clock Sunday night.

At that hour Mrs. B. Meyers, of No. 15 East Leigh Street, in company with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Somers, was walking along Franklin Street between Adams and Foushee. Mrs. Meyers said she noticed a man coming along behind them, but at that time she paid little attention to him. At Foushee and Franklin the two ladies crossed over, going toward Grace Street, and the man also crossed.

Mrs. Meyers' suspicions were again aroused. She remarked to her companion that she felt the man was following them. Mrs. Somers said she didn't think he was, but they walked faster, and after reaching Grace Street they turned toward First.

The man still followed, and the ladies walked faster, and turned out First Street toward Broad, on their way home. Mrs. Meyers grew more apprehensive as the man that was following them also turned out First Street, and she started to drag her toward the alley.

She screamed and called for the police, and the man released her and ran. He went into the alley, but came out again and ran toward Grace Street.

Officer Gorman was standing near the corner of First and Broad Streets and heard the screams. He ran to the scene and saw the negro running. The officer started in pursuit and fired at the fleeing figure. They crossed Grace Street and the man ran into an alley and disappeared from view in the darkness.

The officer strove hard in order to get a glimpse of the negro and a sudden flash of the electric light disclosed the outline of the man, and Officer Gorman shot again and ran up to the man and captured him. The shot had taken effect in the right leg, about six inches above the knee.

The patrol wagon was called and the man was carried to the Third Station, where Dr. Gills attended him and cut the bullet out.

There was a great amount of excitement occasioned by the incident, and several expressions of indignation were strongly expressed, and one thing is certain, while Dr. Gills was dressing the wound the prisoner pleaded with him to kill him, and his expression was one of terror.

The man gave the name of Joseph White. He is well known to the police, and they feel confident that a similar case will crop out against him at the trial.

A lady complained to the police of the Third Station just a short while previous to the attack upon Mrs. Meyers, that a negro had frightened her near Monroe Park. This lady will be asked to identify the man under arrest.

When seen by a reporter yesterday morning, the negro said he did not know anything about the attempted assault upon Mrs. Meyers. He said he didn't do it, but he was in a very nervous state.

Squire Graves presided in the Police Court yesterday morning in the absence of Justice Crutchfield, and upon the testimony given at the hearing, the case was sent on to the grand jury.

BARBER DISAPPEARS.

Lee Mallory Leaves a Note Saying He Has Gone West.

The rather strange and seemingly unexpected departure of Lee Mallory from the city last Wednesday night has caused a surprise among his friends. Mallory was a barber, and since coming to the city, three months ago, had been employed at the short-hair shop at the Twenty-second and Main, and A. O. Miller on Broad Street. He failed to put in an appearance Thursday morning, whereupon Mr. Klein made some inquiry and investigation, but found only the following note, which is all that is known concerning him:

"The note was hastily written, and read thus: 'Harry: I have left town and if anyone inquires for me tell them I have gone West. 'LEE M.'"

On investigation into Mallory's room, it was found that he must have left hurriedly, as he only took part of his wearing apparel.

On an inquiry at Klein's shop yesterday morning it was learned that he had been nothing further in the matter and didn't know why Mallory left so unexpectedly without telling him something about it, as they were on the best of terms and had been since Mallory's first arrival in this city.

Casualties of a Day.

William Jackson and Marshall Robinson, two negro men, got into a scrap about 5:30 o'clock Sunday night at the First Police Station. They had engaged in an exciting crap game, but couldn't get decided to whom two cents belonged, and they got into a fight. Jackson got on the forehead and had to be treated by Dr. Gills, of the ambulance. Both men were arrested.

A negro woman named Ella Collins, while going to work Sunday night, cut off her right index finger. She was treated by Dr. Gills.

George Harris (white) had his right thumb mashed off Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Richmond Locomotive Works, while he was falling off the bargains. He was treated by the ambulance doctor and left.

The Globe Stores.
